Max:

This is a representational encounter that you might judge to be worthwhile. I suggest that you make a quick review of this short memo and let me know whether you would like to meet with the congressman, as indicated, or not.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Administration

FROM: Thomas H. White
Director of Information Services

SUBJECT: Visit by Congressman English

1. Congressman English, Chairman of the Subcommittee on Government Information and Individual Rights of the House Committee on Government Operations and William Lawrence, the Chief Counsel to the Subcommittee will visit Headquarters on 20 March 1981. They are to be briefed on the Agency's experience and problems in administering the Freedom of Information Act. Attached is a tentative agenda for the meeting and a biographic profile on the Congressman. Both Mr. Lawrence and Congressman English are expected to visit with the DCI prior to the briefing, and I thought you would like to meet with them following that visit.

2. If you will let me know your wishes, I will arrange for them to meet with you.
